

CNC Turning machine fitter / NOT VACANTTasks:

You programme, fit, and monitor the operation of two to three CNC turning machines. You are responsible for the trouble-free operation of the machines and you are actively involved in the respective production processes.

Requirements:

Completed vocational training in a metal processing job. You master the programming and fitting of CNC turning machines, thereby considering the principles of economical and efficient production methods. You can work independently, are able to work in a team and communicative. Working flexible hours is not a problem for you.

Core working hours: 07:00 to 16:15 h